

SPBR CONFERENCE 2017

Friday, March 24, 2017 • Crowne Plaza Columbus, Dublin, OH

State Personnel Board of Review (SPBR)

The SPBR Conference is for those new to the field of managing exempt employees in the classified civil service and non-exempt employees in the classified service. This conference also applies to those having collective bargaining agreements that allow for an appeal to the SPBR Board.

This conference is also for new managers, new union officials, attorneys, staff, human resource professionals, and those who are or will be working in positions where they need to know how Ohio's laws and court decisions govern employment matters in the public sector.

This conference is a thorough one-day overview of employment law, trends and matters covering such things as resignations, last chance agreements, merit pay, how to handle classified/unclassified employees, disparate treatment, the law, administrative rules, and the day-to-day procedures of the agency. Content is presented by professionals in the field who speak from the perspective of daily experience. Materials are designed to give you easy access to the provisions of the law and the rules you need to consult.

The SPBR Conference represents the fastest way we know to get up to speed on current and hot topics in addition to a broader understanding of Ohio Revised Code section 124.03.

Application for accreditation of this conference has been filled with the Supreme Court of Ohio Commission on Continuing Legal Education for 5.0 total CLE hours of instruction.
