D. Negotiations Procedures

1. Requests for Negotiations

- a. If either of the parties desires to negotiate changes in subjects of negotiations, it shall notify the other party in writing not earlier than the fifteenth (15th) day of January of any year in which this contract expires, unless changed by mutual agreement. Notification in writing from the Association shall be served on the Superintendent, and from the Board shall be addressed to the Association President. Within fifteen (15) working days after receipt of such notice, unless otherwise mutually agreed, the initial bargaining session shall be held.
- b. Scope of Bargaining: All matter pertaining to wages, hours, or terms and conditions of employment and the continuation, modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement are subject to collective bargaining between the parties.
- c. At the initial bargaining session each party must submit in writing all of its proposals for negotiation. Both parties must present its list of proposals in desired final contract language so that without clarification or supplementation the proposal, if agreed to by the other party, could be incorporated into the final agreement. Topical listing of items proposed for negotiations (laundry lists) shall constitute a clear failure of compliance with this requirement and shall be disregarded.

- d. No additional agenda items may be submitted by either side after the initial exchange, except by mutual consent.

2. Good Faith Bargaining

Good faith negotiations, as provided in this document, include, but are not limited to, reasonable positions on bargainable issues; and indicated willingness to reach an agreement thereon; sound considerations of fiscal, professional or administrative judgment in setting forth, evaluating or declining to agree to proposals not accepted; refraining from unexplained changes in position and from raising new and additional issues calculated to avoid the reaching of an agreement; refraining from encouraging, engaging in or condoning improper conduct. Good faith bargaining, however, does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession.

3. Negotiation Meetings

- a. Negotiation meetings shall be scheduled at the agreement of the parties, and until negotiations are concluded either party may require at each meeting a decision on the date, time and place of a subsequent meeting.
- b. Meetings shall be scheduled at reasonable intervals and mutually convenient places and times. The meetings should avoid, as nearly as is practicable, conflict with school and employment schedules.
- c. Negotiation meetings shall be closed to the press and the public.
- d. Either party may recess for caucuses of reasonable lengths at any time.
- e. Either party may keep written minutes of the meetings in such form and detail as it may deem advisable. Use of any audiovisual equipment to record transcripts of these meetings will not be permitted.

- f. Where unforeseen circumstances make it impossible for the chief negotiator of either team to be in attendance, or cause him to be late, it shall be the duty of that team to notify the other as promptly as possible. Both sides shall thereupon agree to the time for the next negotiation session.

4. Representation at the Negotiation Meetings

- a. Representation at the negotiation meetings shall be limited to six (6) designated representatives of the Board which includes the Board's legal counsel and to six (6) designated representatives of the Association which includes the OEA Labor Relations Consultant. - b. Neither party in any negotiation shall have any control over the selection of negotiating team representatives of the other party. Only those so designated by the Board and the Association as members of the negotiating teams shall participate in negotiation meetings, unless the parties agree otherwise.
- c. The parties mutually pledge that their representatives shall have all necessary power and authority to make proposals, consider proposals, and make counterproposals in the course of negotiations. The agreement reached shall not be binding until ratified by the Association and the Board.

5. Agreement

- a. Tentative agreement on negotiation items shall be reduced to writing and initialed by the designated representatives of each party, but such initialing shall not be construed as final agreement. Either party may revise an initialed agreement until all items have been agreed to by the respective negotiating team.
- b. Tentative agreement reached through negotiations shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the Association. Upon approval by the Association, the agreement shall be submitted within one (1) week or at the next regularly scheduled meeting, whichever is later, to the Board for approval. If approved by both parties, the agreement shall then be signed on behalf of the parties and shall be adopted by the Board. The document will then become a legally binding agreement between the two parties.

6. Dispute Resolution

- a. In the event the foregoing procedures do not produce an agreement, either party or the parties jointly may contact the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to provide a mediator to assist in the impasse. Mediation shall continue as long as the mediator believes it is productive or the expiration of this Agreement, whichever is sooner, and if the parties mutually agree, may continue thereafter.
- b. If mediation does not result in an agreement, the Association has the right to strike provided it has given a ten (10) day notice required under Ohio Revised Code 4117.14(D)2.
- c. Mediation represents the parties mutually agreed upon exclusive alternate dispute resolution procedure under Ohio Revised Code 4117.14 and shall supersede the other impasse procedure in Ohio Revised Code 4117.14.

2010-2011 Enrollment	930
2011-2012 Enrollment	900

- G. A bargaining unit member who leaves the bargaining unit at any time during a school year to accept a non-bargaining unit administrative position within the school district, and who returns to the bargaining unit by agreement or by operation of law during the succeeding school year, shall not suffer a break in seniority under this Article.

  4. If the employee was a bargaining unit member within the last five (5) years, the employee, if properly certificated, may displace a substitute teacher who is filling a vacancy that exists due to an approved leave of absence. A notice of recall shall be made by certified mail.

Conditions for Implementation of Supplemental Salary Schedule

1. A bargaining unit member shall be placed on an appropriate step of the supplemental salary schedule based on the number of years that a bargaining unit member has held a specific position within the District; i.e., Step 1 = 0 years, Step 2 = 1 year, Step 3 = 2, Step 5 = 4-8; Step 10 = 9 or more years.
2. A bargaining unit member may relinquish a position without forfeiting his/her previous experience. However, the bargaining unit member must have maintained continuous employment with the district in order to be given credit for prior experience when rehired for the Supplemental.
3. A bargaining unit member may change positions within in a given classification without forfeiting years of experience; e.g., an Assistant Football Coach at Step 3 would remain at Step 3 the following year if he were moved to the Head Football Coach position.

4. The decision whether or not to fill any position on the schedule is entirely at the Board's discretion.
5. A position split between two (2) bargaining unit members will be mutually agreed to by the two (2) bargaining unit members filling that position and the administration. Each bargaining unit member will be paid one-half of the percentage of the BA base according to the bargaining unit member's experience step placement on the supplemental salary schedule.

Bargaining unit members employed for the positions listed above shall be paid the salary indicated for the position.

ARTICLE 22 - SEVERANCE PAY

- A. Bargaining unit members who elect to retire from service in the District, who have at the minimum ten (10) years of service as employees with the State of Ohio or any of its political subdivisions, or any combination thereof, and who have been accepted for retirement by one of the state employees' retirement systems, shall receive at the time of their retirement a one lump-sum payment amounting to twenty-five percent (25%) of their accumulated sick leave days up to a maximum of seventy-three (73) days for 2016-2017, seventy-eight (78) days for 2017-2018 and eighty (80) days for 2018-2019. The payment of severance shall occur within ninety (90) days of the last day under contract with the District. Such earnings are to be figured at the per diem rate (exclusive of supplementary pay) of the member at the time of retirement.
- B. Payment for sick leave on this basis shall be considered to eliminate all sick leave credit accrued by the bargaining unit member. Such payment shall be made only once to any bargaining unit member.
- C. A bargaining unit member who participates in the Ohio Deferred Compensation Program authorized under IRS Section 457 shall receive their severance payment within sixty (60) days of their retirement date or official notification of retirement.
- D. Bargaining unit members are eligible for either severance pay provision in this Article if and only if they have been accepted in their retirement system and have been approved for retirement benefits.
- E. Members shall receive a fifteen thousand dollar ($15,000) retirement incentive only for the first time eligible. An irrevocable letter of resignation for retirement must be submitted by March 31 of the year of retirement or three (3) months prior to retirement date. The member must retire during or at the end of the year when first eligible. First time eligibility verification must be provided by the member from STRS.

- F. If a bargaining unit member dies while still employed by the District but, at the time of death, was qualified under STRS guidelines for retirement, any severance pay due will be paid to the member's estate.
- G. For every fifteen (15) days that has accumulated at the time of retirement above the maximum accumulation, one (1) day of severance pay will be added to the total severance pay credited. Any days accumulated under this section prior to that date shall be credited to the member at the time of retirement in addition to the severance provided under this Article.
